Mr. John Allen Chalk
P. O. Box 474
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Brother John Allen:

I received a letter from Brother Walden Tarpley saying that he was definitely interested and would be willing to help in an Alumni banquet at Cookeville. You understand that we would be interested mainly in attracting seniors who might be prospective students for Freed-Hardeman College. The college would pay for these dinners. All other alumni and friends would be invited and urged to attend, but each would pay for his dinner.

I am sure that we could have a good program that would be of interest to all. I would like to propose Monday night, February 27, 1961 for this banquet. Let me know if you think this would be satisfactory, also where we would have the banquet and what the cost per plate would be. I shall be happy to receive an answer to these questions as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

W. A. B.

W. A. Bradfield
